1. Addition to the agenda by shareholders pursuant to § 109 AktG

Shareholders may request that additional items be added to the agenda of this Annual General Meeting and announced if their aggregate holding reaches 5% of the total shares and they have held these shares for at least three months before submitting the request, provided that this request is delivered to the company by mail or courier service not later than March 4, 2020 (24:00 hrs, CET, time in Vienna) and addressed exclusively to ANDRITZ AG, att. Dr. Michael Buchbauer, Investor Relations department, Stattegger Strasse 18, 8045 Graz, Austria. Each agenda item requested in this way must include a resolution proposal and state the reason for the request. Proof of shareholding must be brought by submitting a safe custody receipt pursuant to § 10a AktG confirming that the shareholders making the request have held the shares for at least three months before submitting the request. This safe custody receipt must not be more than seven days old at the time of submission to the company. Reference is made to the information on entitlement to participate (Item III) concerning the other requirements relating to the safe custody receipt.

2. Resolution proposals for the agenda by shareholders pursuant to § 110 AktG
Shareholders may submit resolution proposals in writing, including the reasons for the proposal, for any item on the agenda and request that these proposals be made accessible together with the name of the shareholder concerned, the reasons to be attached to the proposal and any comments thereon by the Executive Board or the Supervisory Board on the company's web site as entered in the Companies' Register if their aggregate holding reaches 1% of the total shares, provided that this request is delivered to the company either in writing by fax to 43 316 6902-465 or by mail, courier service or personally to ANDRITZ AG, att. The request in writing, for example in PDF format, should be attached to the e-mail.

The declaration by the person proposed pursuant to § 87 (2) AktG shall take the place of the reasons in a proposal for election of a Supervisory Board member.

Proof of shareholding must be brought by submitting a safe custody receipt pursuant to § 10a AktG, which must not be more than seven days old at the time of submission to the company. Reference is made to the information on entitlement to participate (Item III) concerning the other requirements relating to the safe custody receipt.

3. Shareholders' right to information pursuant to § 118 AktG
Each shareholder shall, upon request, receive information at the Annual General Meeting on matters concerning the company to the extent that such information is necessary in order to properly evaluate an item on the agenda. The obligation to provide information also extends to the legal relationships between the company and an affiliated company and to the situation within the Group and the companies included in the Consolidated Financial Statements.

Information may be denied if it would be deemed suitable according to reasonable entrepreneurial judgment to cause significant harm to the company or an associated company or if such disclosure would be liable to prosecution.

As a general principle, requests for information at the Annual General Meeting should be made verbally, but can also be submitted in writing.

In the interests of efficiency, questions to which the answers require some time to prepare should be submitted to the Executive Board in writing and in good time before the Annual General Meeting. The questions may be sent to the company by fax to +43 316 6902-465 or by e-mail to michael.buchbauer@andritz.com.

4. Requests from shareholders at the Annual General Meeting pursuant to § 119 AktG

However, if a shareholder tables a motion for election of a member of the Supervisory Board, it is mandatory that a resolution proposal pursuant to § 110 AktG is submitted within the time period allowed: Candidates for election to the Supervisory Board (Item 7 on the agenda) can only be proposed by shareholders whose aggregate shareholding reaches 1% of the total shares. Such election proposals must be delivered to the company as described above (Item V, para. 2) not later than March 16, 2020. Each proposal must be accompanied by the declaration pursuant to § 87 (2) AktG by the candidate for election concerning professional qualifications, professional or comparable functions, and all circumstances that could give cause for concern with regard to the candidate's impartiality.

Otherwise the shareholders' motion for election of a member of the Supervisory Board can not be considered in the vote.

Please note that ANDRITZ AG is not subject to § 86, (7) AktG and need not take the minimum shareholding requirement pursuant to § 86 (7) into account.

5. Information on the web site

More information on these shareholders' rights pursuant to §§ 109, 110, 118, and 119 AktG can be found on the company's web site at andritz.com.

the proxy holder(s) if applicable) on the basis of the data protection regulations applying, in particular the European General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR) and the Austrian Data Protection Act, in order to enable the shareholders to exercise their rights at the Annual General Meeting.

Processing of shareholders' personal data is absolutely necessary if shareholders and their proxy holders are to participate in the Annual General Meeting pursuant to the Austrian Stock Corporation Act. The legal basis for data processing is thus Article 6 (1) c) GDPR.

In addition, ANDRITZ AG is under legal obligation to submit shareholders' personal data (in particular the list of participants) to the Companies' Register as part of the notarial record (§ 120 AktG).

The shareholders' data are rendered anonymous or deleted as soon as they are no longer needed for the purposes for which they were collected and processed and to the extent that there are no other legal obligations that require these data to be stored. Obligations to verify and store data result, in particular, from company, stock corporation and takeover law, fiscal and tax legislation, and from anti-money laundering regulations. If any legal claims are raised against ANDRITZ AG by shareholders or by ANDRITZ AG against shareholders, storage of personal data is used in individual cases to settle and enforce claims. In connection with legal proceedings in civil courts, this can result in data being stored for the duration of the limitation period plus the duration of the legal proceedings until they are legally terminated.

personal data as well as a right of data portability pursuant to Chapter III of the GDPR. Shareholders can enforce these rights towards ANDRITZ AG free of charge at the following e-mail address: michael.buchbauer@andritz.com, or using the following contact data:
